GREIT DEMOCRATIC DEMONSTRATION!

An Unparalleled Uprising of the Masses!

The Union Saved—by the Constitution Vindicated—Black Republicanism run into the ground and broken up!

One Hundred and Fifty of the Unparalleled Democracy in Council—Washington County Re-elected, Regenerated and Disfranchised!

Mr. Editor—

I write you from Washington County—the Banner County in the State for the Sham Democracy, and one they claim will do as well for "Buck and Breck," according to her papulation, as old Democratic Berke herself. And judging from recent indications, I am inclined to the belief that when she speaks in November, the Sham Democracy will look more like a wolf than anything else, and the fact knocked so completely off the "Woolly Horse," that that interesting animal, not imploring some political Abraham to lead Lazarus with a drop of water, will at least request that the charming and compassionate Jessie may have permission to enter him with 62 horses after the manner which our ancient mother Eve arrayed herself after tasting of those forbidden pippins.

The terrified Democracy held a grand and most imposing Mass Convention, (according to the News, of your city, and that very veracious print and embodiment of political honesty, the Washington County Organ) at this place, on Friday of last week. It was published in the Democratic paper for about a month prior to the time of meeting, so that the people could have ample time to arrange their affairs, in order to turn out in their might and strength in such manner that the poor, sectional Black Republican, who seem determined to elect Fremont without the aid of Breck or Herriot, might be induced to ground the weapons of rebellion, and come up to the help of Buchanan against Mariposa. Those who had the matter in charge were determined to leave no stone unturned—to spare no pains, but make the meeting worthy of the Democracy, the hour and the men. And they did it. It was suggested to them that it would probably be in perfect keeping with the rest of the proceedings to have a national salute fired at sunrise by touching off a fire-cracker for each State, and a salute for Kansas which advice was promptly and indignantly declined! At about half-past the immense concourse came pouring into the village in squads of two and three, and one delegation I noticed consisted of seven men on foot, followed by a large spotted dog, supposed to represent Pierce's Cabinet. One fellow carried a tin can in his hat, indicative of the tin can left behind by a man who has come, but didn't stay, and also of the number of thousands that Buchanan is to be beaten in this State. Being a town where they trust that Black Rep. couldn't have been carried to his bed by a head and poison, with its pestiferous breath, the perspiration of the day is to be the day's-breed, negro-diffusion, women-whipping, baby-stealing Democracy, testified to her love for the cause, by sending a delegation of about 20, who filled three two-horse wagons to their utmost capacity. The crowd now became so dense that not more than four carriages or six carts could have passed down Main Street, at one time, almost! One man carried a red "Union" flag, tied to a bass-wood pole for a banner, and with distasteful liberality offered a small box five cents to "harsh for Buchanan." The chrysalis Republican replied that he didn't burn for ten cents a day! The procession reached at one time from the front and three store of Horace K. Dodge down across the old Territorial Road, along Main Street, nearly to the old site of the Anglo-Saxon House—a distance of nearly twenty feet!

The excitement now became intense. The procession, like the Old Guard of Napoleon at Waterloo, halted a few minutes. There was a halt in the way! A few miserable, agitating shabbies had stretched across the street a detestable, sectioned flag, bearing the revolutionary inscription—

"FREE KANSAS, FREE SPEECH & FREMONT."

Could the Union-loving, Slavery-attending, sectional-hating, Irish-murdering Democracy sever their principles and surrender their sacred rights by passing under such a flag, on such an occasion? NO! NEVER! Twenty times NO! (The number of the procession.) The boys on the sidewalk cheered lustily for Fremont. Young Shanghai cocke, whose pin-fathers just begun to prick through the skin, flapped their undeveloped wings and crowed for Jessie. Their leader looked up at the flag with a scowl, and no doubt muttered to himself the vindictive wrath of Satan at the gate of Hell—

"Whoever and what it may, I'll show 'em! This is the day, and the day is mine!"

They finally turned and went round by the mill-yard, "feeling like one who treads alone some banquet hall deserted," and thus escaped the everlasting shame and dishonor of passing under such a flag!

"Which, too victory, was yet come!"

The band now struck up that popular Democratic tune—"There is no luck about the house," which is now considered very appropriate, as far as the White House is concerned. Arriving at the speaker's stand, there was a scene presented well calculated to gladden the heart of every true lover of Democratic rights, Squatter Sovereignty and Slavery Extension. The crowd had been variously estimated. One man asserts that, by actual count, there were at one time no less than FOUR HUNDRED on the ground, and not more than one-fourth of whom were Fremont men! The balance (how sweet to Democratic ears sounds that word, "Balance!") were the pure, unadulterated, uncompromising, untrifled Democracy—the bone and sinew and muscle of the land.

Thomas Skelton, Senior (Tom Junior, gone in for the Woolly Horse and Jessie) called the countless throng to order, and nominated Horace Cox as President of the day. On the stand I noticed such eminent Democrats as J. S. Brown and J. L. Doran, of your city, and the notorious Farrar, who does the dirty for the Washington County Border Ruffian organ, a man who loves to lie so well, that he only uses truth as a sort of condiment to sharpen his relish for the false. The speaking was rich, racy, romantic and entirely Democratic. The naturalized citizen was exhorted to vote for "Buck and Breck," by all the endearing ties of Democracy.

A LETTER FROM GOTHENBURG READER

On the approaching Election of President and the Candidates.

NEW YORK CITY, September 12.

To the Editor of the Evening Post:

GENTLEMEN: The letter of your correspondent H., and your editorial comments upon it of the 16th inst., seem in common courtesy to demand a reply. Your correspondent does not say, in saying that I desire the success of the Republican party, and the election of their candidate, and that I am ready to contribute my honorable effort to bring it about. This is not the result of any reference to men, but in spite of it. With Colonel Fremont I am acquainted. I have never seen him, nor had any communication with him, direct or indirect, of that or friendship. On the other hand, my feelings of friendship and admiration for Mr. Buchanan, as a man, are of an ordinary character, and are strengthened by years of friendly intimacy and reciprocal acts of kindness, uninterfered to this time by a single misapprehension or unkindness, and I would at any time or place, promptly and indignantly rebuff any personal attacks upon his reputation.

I believe him to be a man of distinguished ability, of high integrity, and valuable experience. He is surrounded, too, in Pennsylvania by many political friends, whom personally I love and esteem, and to whom I am united by ties of long-cherished political and social intimacy, and the loss of whose friendship I should regard as a great calamity. For more than a quarter of a century I have steadily labored with the Democratic party, and never doubted that I should do so during my life. For years I have exerted myself to bring about Mr. Buchanan's nomination. In 1851 and 1852 I was one of those who carried for him the delegates of our district, and was his zealous and ardent supporter. On each occasion I was in the National Convention as one of his delegates.

These ties are exceedingly strong and hard to sever, especially with one who is naturally of a conservative cast and slow to change old habits of thought and action; and I have resisted for months the convictions that were urging me to my present declaration. I have diligently sought to see and argue with every one of the men of the Republican party, and to convince them of the error of their ways, but in vain. My love of country and hatred of oppression would not allow my feelings and instincts to be so easily overcome, and I am content to stand by my conviction, and to do so with a clear conscience, and with a full knowledge of the facts of the case.

I have no reasonable hope of justice and sympathy for the people of Kansas, in the success of the Democracy. In its ranks, and with the power to control the nation, are found the Border Ruffians of Missouri, and their accomplices of the 8th and 9th, and 10th, and 11th, and 12th, and 13th, and 14th, and 15th, and 16th, and 17th, and 18th, and 19th, and 20th, and 21st, and 22nd, and 23rd, and 24th, and 25th, and 26th, and 27th, and 28th, and 29th, and 30th, and 31st, and 32nd, and 33rd, and 34th, and 35th,
